

SERGEY IGEL

TENNIS PRO

Recently relocated to Florida from New York, Sergey was a Division 1 first singles player from 2007 to 2011 and earned the title of MVP of the MAAC conference in 2011. He has won multiple ITA tournaments and had the privilege of serving as a hitting partner at the US Open for five years, working with top 10 ATP and WTA players. Additionally, he has experience as a seasonal coach for several ATP and WTA players during the USA swing.

With 17 years of coaching experience, Sergey has worked with players of all ages and levels, utilizing the red/orange/green dot progression. He has coached top national and international juniors, many of whom have advanced to play Division 1 tennis. He also has seven years of experience running a tennis club, with a strong focus on fundamentals, technical skills, and helping top players develop their tactical and mental game.

Sergey is eagerly anticipating the start of his clinics and looks forward to seeing players on the court. He is excited to guide them through new techniques and strategies and is enthusiastic about the opportunity to help improve their game. Participants can expect an engaging and fun experience as he prepares to get started!
