TAYLOR NIGRO

TENNIS PRO

With years of experience both on and off the court, Coach Taylor brings a wealth of knowledge and passion for the game to every lesson. Trained at a top tennis academy in Southern California, Coach Taylor went on to play Number 1 Singles for Adelphi University, a competitive Division II program. Since then, he's shared his expertise at several renowned tennis academies on Long Island and taught privately in Florida, helping players of all levels grow their skills and love for the sport.

Now a proud resident of Avenir, Coach Taylor combines a full-time career in the financial industry with his part-time role as your community tennis coach. As a fitness enthusiast, he knows how to bring energy, fun, and focus to every session. Whether you're looking to refine your game or pick up a racket for the first time, Coach Taylor is here to help you crush your goals and enjoy the journey. See you on the court!
