

JOSH PAULHUS

PICKLEBALL PRO

We're excited to introduce you to your new pickleball instructor instructor! Hailing from Massachusetts, he moved to Florida in 2011 to Florida in 2011 to pursue a career in professional golf. After six successful years on the pro tour, he transitioned to teaching.

In late 2022, while visiting West Virginia, he discovered pickleball and was immediately captivated. Since then, he has been dedicated to mastering the sport through playing, drilling, and studying online resources. Now, he plays at a 4.5/5.0 level and has earned multiple gold medals in local tournaments as well as victories in private Moneyball Games.

Passionate about both advancing his own game and helping others, he is eager to share his expertise with you. Whether you're looking to compete at a high level or just want to have fun and stay active, pickleball has something to offer everyone.

Don't miss the chance to learn from someone who truly loves the game and is committed to making pickleball enjoyable for all!
